Parenting a teenager is a complex and demanding task. What can you do to prepare for a successful journey through the teenage years. What can you do to help your child make the right choices when it comes to issues such as the ready access to drugs, underage sex and alcohol abuse? You have more power than you think to influence your child's choices. Tackling Teens shows parents how they can help their child make the right choices and guide them successfully through these often difficult times of physical, social and emotional change.
